Freshman Orientation

Under the Belltower Article

Written by Diane Chih

A whole new start and a whole new place for the incoming students as the first couple days of orientation begin. Students everywhere, trying to find out where they belong and parents looking for a peace in their heart to know that their children will be safe here. This was a whole new world for some students coming from large cities settling into a small campus. Students from almost every part of the country moving in for college were a little bit nervous, not to mention the biggest incoming class ever. According to Kate Ellison, many first year students are adjusting to the campus quite well. The UD staff was willing to help any way they could. They guided many of the confused first-year students to their places. There was a BBQ on the Quad for students, families and staff members. Even though it is hard to leave loved ones at home and start another step in life, the UD staff tried their best to reassure new students that everything would be fine. They had activities to encourage new students to get to know the campus and new people a little better - such as the Play Fair. One new student said "That's were I met most of my friends." The UD staff also encouraged the new students to get involved by having an activities fair. Most students adapted well, and it is okay to feel a little homesick.

Opening Convocation

Under the Belltower Article

By Christina Cowl

On Tuesday, September 11, 2001, trustees, faculty, and students joined together to begin the school year at Opening Convocation Ceremony at Westminster Presbyterian Church. The Processional included symbols of University of Dubuque. Symbols included a bagpipe for the Presbyterian heritage of the school, the Celtic cross for the Son of God and the people who follow him from all nations. Faculty and trustees were dressed in garments to represent academic institutions and disciplines. Students carried flags in representing their countries. A welcome was extended to the one of the largest freshman classes. All new faculty were introduced to the University of Dubuque students. Speeches given by President Bullock and student president Jeehong Song asking students to get involved with the University of Dubuque and accomplish the University's mission to be one of the best small private Christian colleges.

Homecoming

Homecoming week was October 1-6. What an exciting this was for all the students at UD. The schedule of events for Homecoming week included window painting and hypnotist on Monday. Twinkie eating contest and Coronation on Tuesday. Wednesday was the 70's theme picture taking day, while Thursday was the big game show in the Union. Friday was a very busy day on campus with Games on the Quad, the climbing wall, and the inflatable slide. Then students attended the powderpuff game, folk singers in the coffee shop, and finally the traditional pep rally and bon fire. Saturday was game day, with a kickoff tailgating party, the Spartans vs. Coe, and finally the 70's dance. What a fun week of all the students at University of Dubuque.

Homecoming

To be at the Homecoming dance was a scary experience, a flashback to the 1970's. There was a abundance of ugly clothes and afros six feet tall. Despite many peoples choice of wacky attire the dance was a success. The food was delicious, and school spirit was high. It was quite a sight to see students and teachers singing the Bee Gees. The Silver Eagle is a very nice Events Center and was perfect for our Homecoming dance. There was also an option of getting your picture taken at the dance as well, although many afros may have been too tall and cut off in the photographs. The Highlight of the dance was the 70's attire.

Coach Giese's pre-season Preview
From the Spartan Fall Program

With last season's top player Rachel Raub having graduated, the Spartans will look for leadership from their lone Senior Lauren Esolato. The Tinley Park, IL native has been a consistent performer for the past three seasons. Coach Giese expects Lauren to take a big step forward in her final college season. Esolato, Junior Abby Garner, and Sophomores Katie Vernon and Laura Lamb will need to improve their short games to eliminate the wasted strokes around the greens. Newcomers to this year's squad include B.J. Duwa, freshman Mandy Maahs, and Rachael Swella-Snedlund who all had outstanding high school careers and will contribute with more competition in practice and more consistent scoring. From top to bottom, the Spartans look to move into the top half of the conference standings.

Men's Soccer

Coach Jason Berna's pre-season Preview From the Spartan Fall Program

This will be the first season for men's soccer here at University of Dubuque. The team will consist of 21 freshman, four transfers, and three players from on campus. Our first season will be a challenge to get everyone on the same page for what we want to do as a team. We look to be very competitive with every team that we will play this year and are hoping to have some early success as a first-year program. We will undoubtedly be the underdog in each game, but that will help us, as each game we will be improving and learning from past mistakes made. Overall, I really think we will be able to hold our own in conference with every team we face. We are shooting to make the conference tournament in our first year, which would be a great sign for the future of soccer here at UD.

Go Women Go!

As you might have heard, there is a new athletic team at UD this year. Women's Soccer! The new coach, Jason Berna, is a Dubuque native who has played for Loras College for the past four years. He also coaches two Dubuque soccer club teams. Coach Berna said, "I am looking forward to the beginning of the first ever soccer season at UD, and many more years to come." The team consists of ten freshman and six returning students. He said, "even though it may be a brand new sport at UD, I have all the confidence in the world for the girl's athletic abilities." He encourages the girls by telling them that "they are only going to go as far as they want to go", he is not going to force them to succeed, they have to do that on their own. Coach Berna says there are three things the team needs to work on to better themselves, communication, more recoveries, and more physical conditioning. The women are looking forward to accomplishing one of their main goals this year, winning the Iowa conference. The women's soccer team is a great addition to the UD athletic program.

This year's women's volleyball team has a new head coach Stacy Ruff. She's a native from Dubuque that graduated from UD. She not only graduated from here, but she also played volleyball at UD. She was the head coach for the varsity team at Hempstead High School here in Dubuque from 1997-1998 and she also was the assistant coach at UD. Coach Ruff says "I have a lot of confidence in the girls this year, I feel they are going to accomplish a lot." The volleyball team consists of nineteen players, five seniors, one junior, and the remaining are sophomore and freshman. Coach Ruff says "every match they play is very competitive, fighting for the top of their conference is not the easiest." She also said "one of their main goals is to make it to the top of the conference this fall." Coach Ruff said there is only one thing she felt the girls needed to work on and that is staying focused and making sure they stay aggressive throughout the match.

There are many new faces on the men's basketball team this year. The Spartans have 26 players this year, sufficient for both a JV and Varsity team. With added depth and quickness at the guard positions, along with some returning size in the post, the team looks to have a promising season. The Spartans have played well despite their losses in the first two games without their two leading scorers from last year, Antoine Jackson and Eric Farley, who are out until second semester. They played UW Platteville, which is second in their conference, and Coe, which is near the top of their conference. The team has shown some improvement and is learning to play together. They have big contributions from the new Freshman transfer students and have had good play from returning postman. The team looks to get better as they gain more experience with each passing game.

For nearly the past three years, the University of Dubuque has not had a men's wrestling team. However, nine freshmen and three sophomores "Have overcome that hurdle," commented Head Coach Sam Richardson. Coach Richardson said that, "All things considered, they had a great season." Each member competed with intensity. This is evident in the three members of the team who were twenty match winners. More specifically, Patrick Dapkus placed in the top six at the conference meet this season, a feat that has not been accomplished in nearly five years at the University of Dubuque. Also, Coach Richardson said that Pete Elmhurst, had he not suffered an injury, more than likely would have gone on to break the single season pin record. This season consisted of taking small steps in order to create a foundation on which to build in the years to come. Coach Richardson said that the University of Dubuque has many recruits for next year. They have six men who have already stated their intent to come here. Another 10 men have the UD as one of their two choices. If the team gets that kind of turnout, the men's wrestling team will be able to fill an entire line of twenty-five for next year. With Coach Sam Richardson in charge, with Pete Elmhurst as a leader for the team, and a full line of wrestlers, it will be no surprise to see great improvements in the entire team.

AHP

Alpha Eta Rho is an international fraternity bringing aviation students in contact with professionals in the aviation field. Alpha Eta Rho also builds teamwork skills necessary to aviation. At the University of Dubuque, members of the Upsilon Delta chapter participated in many fraternal outings and in the past year and also held concession stand providing warm food on the cold days of the NIFA flight competition. This year Alpha Eta Rho had two rush periods, one in the fall and another in the spring. The fall pledge class consisted of: Steven Fara, Sebastian Grochola, Nic Rupiper, Rachael Swella, Elizabeth Toomey, Jim Klusman, Adam Berkey, and Theresa Reuter. The spring pledge class consisted of: Julie Petch, Ryan Crawford, Dave Wulfkuhle, Matthew Dieter, and Jessica Kernan.

Athenaeans

The Athenaeon Fraternity was established in 1922 and is based on the three virtues of beauty, truth, and wisdom. Another aspect of the Athenaeans is that we believe that our Fraternity takes brotherhood and membership of the Fraternity with the highest respect towards each other, our alumni, and the community as well. Service projects are done throughout the course of the year as well. Examples of these projects are the annual blood drive, and helping athletic teams on campus with tournaments. Just this past year we helped the Wrestling team move mats from Loras College to U.D. and back to Loras after the tournament concluded.

Our sisters are the Lambas from the Lambda Tau Delta Sorority. Each year we get together with the Lambdas to have our annual cookout in the beginning of the year, a mixer towards the middle of the year, and the annual boxer party after the new pledge classes are admitted to each organization. Each year we strive to make ties with our sisters stronger and stronger to make our relationships with the Lambdas the best they can be throughout campus.

As for this year's pledge class, we have had one of the biggest pledge classes in history. The newest members of the Fraternity include, Matt Zuckerman, Eric Bradley, Josh Chapo, Ryan Fritz, Luke Hahle, Jon Janulis, Andre Jennings, Matt Kraus, Curtis LeConte, Reid Logan, Joe Risse, Dave Sreenan, Matt Thompson, and Ryan Wolfram. As for the future for the Athenaeans, this pledge class will be the key to bringing in new members for next year, just as our president, Mark Rzasa, and Garth Gibson were for the 2002 Pledge Class.

Other news for upcoming events for the Athenaeans is that we are having our 80th reunion next year for all of our alumni, as well as active members. We are looking forward to the future of our Fraternity and this reunion will be the start of another great year for the Athenaeans.

Josh Chapo and Dave Screenan rockin' out after pledging!

Lambda Tau Delta

The Lambda Tau Delta Sorority was founded in 1919 and reestablished in 1997. The Lambda Tau Delta sorority is committed to nourishing the improvement of the community and the University of Dubuque through voluntary measures and maintain the loyal, long-lasting bonds of sisterhood. The Lambda's started the year out with a cookout with their brothers, the Athenaeans. Every year the two groups get together and cook burgers and hot dogs for the students on campus. The Lambda's also had their informal on October 10th, which had a great turn out. By the end of pledging the Lambda's had eleven new ladies make it through! These wonderful gals are as follows: Amy Burrill, Abbi Foster, Marcy Kruse, Emily McGlothlen, Stephanie Pieper, Andrea Ricklefs, Kathleen Sciacero, Brandie Shoemaker, Katie Vernon, and CeCe Zangara. The Lambda's celebrated their five year anniversary of the re-establishment of the sorority on April 12-14, 2002. Several alumni came back to help celebrated the exciting event.

The Mu Sigma Beta Fraternity was founded in April 20, 1939 by Jacob Bahema and 8 other founding members. The Mu Sigma Beta name loosely means, "By toiling for wisdom we shall attain the kingdom". We are based on the 5 beliefs of Brotherhood, Unity, Creativity, Scholarship and School Spirit and encourage all lifestyles and ethnicities to be apart of our heritage.

Our sisters are the Gamma Phi Delta, otherwise known as the toads. They include Kathy Camp, Tia Goodman, Amanda Tonne, Diane Chih, Summer Swope, Megan Evans, Kendra Possehl, and Lori Hall. The Gamma's and the Mu Sig's extracurricular activities usually include both organizations, from just hanging out, listening to each other's problems, helping with schoolwork to planning events like the Mu Sigma Beta annual bonfire and other get-togethers.

Last year, the Mu Sig's were struggling with only three actives, Chris Kirkpatrik, Westley Bennet, Doug Jergenson. Now, there are at least 11 actives, and about 4 brothers who decided not to come back, for one reason or another. The new members include, Doug Kropp, Nic Grassel, Mical Nglelale, Scott Nauman, Mike Keon, Adam "Bach" Bachinski, Gabe Mensching, Wayman "Q" Jones, T.J. Mulderink, Patrick Tompkins, Leif Carlson, Jeremy Meyer, Tim Law, and Travis Hoy.

We, as a fraternity, like to give back to the community what and when we can. The annual blood drive is a big thing with us. We also organized a donation box at the end of the year where people could give things to be given to Goodwill and other such places. Setting up for and participating in school sponsored activities is also something we like to do.

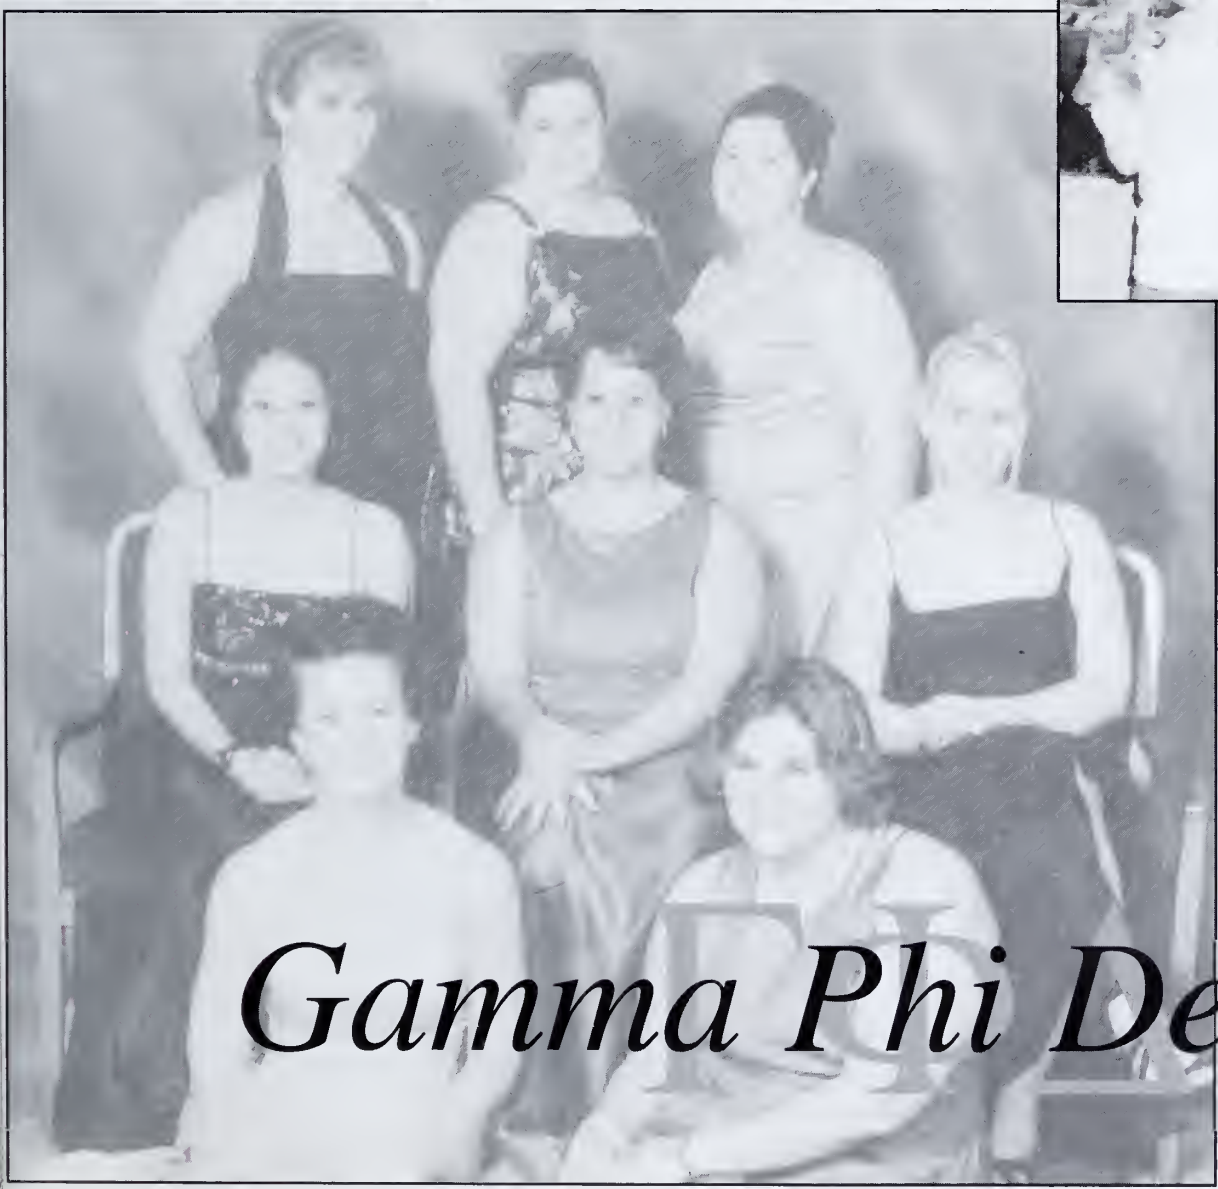

Last year was a great year for us, getting so many new members and relieving the frat. That in itself was enough to make us all happy. After pledging the year flew by and now we look forward to a new year to hopefully strengthen our frat and show everyone what we are all about. But the one thing we are about most is brotherhood, the bonding that our brothers share and knowing that we can count on each other to be there.

Gamma Phi Delta

Phi Sigma Tau was founded at UD in 1990 after the dissolution of our national fraternity Phi Sigma Kappa. Phi Sigma Tau is the only fraternity on campus that does not have a sister organization. We added two new members in the spring of '02, Mark Hines and Jamie Perkins and graduated three members, Aaron Jones, Jeehoon Song and Brian Rixen. Phi Sigma Tau's three cardinal principles are to promote brotherhood, stimulate scholarship and develop character.

Delta Phi Sigma

The Delta Phi Sigma Sorority was founded in 1919. Their brothers are the Thirteeners who were founded in 1913. The Delta's do many things with their brothers including pledging activities and gatherings with the Thirteeners. The Delta's colors are red and white and have the rose as their flower. For their informal they have a Mardi Gras theme and have a blast making masks with the prospective individuals. During Christmas the Delta's ring bell for the salvation army and also sell flowers during lunch and dinner in the cafeteria as fundraisers. The active members of the sorority are as follows; Abby Garner, Lara Scott, and Amanda Wasieleski. Unfortunately, the Delta Phi Sigma sorority did not have any pledges last year, but are looking for wonderful girls to become members next year.

"The members of Phi Omicron are planning many formal and informal events for non-greek students who are interested in the greek system. We are also working with many people to get the first scholarship fund set up in the Greek system as well. We are hoping to help the Dubuque community in many ways this coming year."

There is a new coach for the Spartan Softball Team. Don Till previously coached high school, but is learning the new ropes of college ball. "It took a while to adjust with a new coach and many freshman playing the field" explains player Teresa Dix. "He knows a lot about the game and has many years of experience," says BJ Duwa. The girls softball team is currently 4-24. Despite the losses there is a lot of improvement shown. The defense and offense have both improved greatly over the softball season. Over spring break, the girls packed up the UD vans and took a road trip to Florida to play in a tournament. The tournament wasn't much of a success, but it was a good bonding experience. This tournament was a learning experience for the team and they believe they will be stronger next year.

Spartan Baseball

From On the Belltower

By Scott Malcolm

With the season coming to an end, the Dubuque Spartans baseball team find themselves in a situation that no team would want to be in. The Spartans have little to cheer about with a losing season under their belts. The beginning of the season started off promising, but as time progressed the Spartans found themselves with their backs against a wall. This raised many disappointments with the players, but with the senior leadership of J.P. Newman and Bret Fizlaff, the Dubuque Spartans have decided to give it their all to prove that they are indeed a great baseball team. "This season is not yet over, we still have many more games left and we do not plan to give up those games" says Head Coach Dennis Rima. The Dubuque Spartans have ten games left to play and with all the pistons firing the Spartans are ready for anything. Although the Spartans journey will not be an easy one. With eight conference games left to play, the Spartans still have to face the top teams in the conference and they know that the worst is yet to come. The Spartans realized that the odds are against them and they could care less. "When you step onto that field, it doesn't matter what you are ranked or how many games you won or lost, everything is up for grabs." according to Coach Rima.

Graduation

Left: Students enter the gym feeling excited that their hard work has finally paid off, yet sad to be leaving their friends and family at the University of Dubuque.

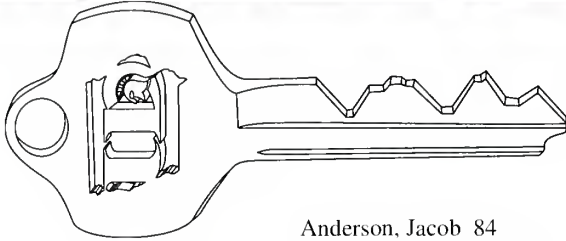

Katie Hoany, Richard Ross, and Mark Smith perform for the last time as students.

Thank You

The Key staff would like to thank all those who donated pictures and copy, especially the Under the Belltower Newspaper staff.

Special thanks to Basil Steele for his creative design of the UD key that was printed in silver hot foil on the Cover and used throughout the yearbook. The yearbook staff greatly appreciates the time you volunteered to make this edition special.

Thanks to the UD faculty members who assisted in creating this yearbook especially Sandy Steuer, Rachael Sigwarth, Tom Hogan, Sherry Steinback, Jan Cesaretti, and Tammy Walsh.

Colophon

The University of Dubuque yearbook THE KEY was printed by Walsworth Publishing Company of Marceline, Missouri. All pages were produced using Adobe Pagemaker 6.5 and Adobe Photoshop.
